Information for foreign nationals participating in bike races organized by the Norwegian Cycling Federation (Norges Cykleforbund - NCF)

Foreign citizens who get an injury when participating in bike races, organized by the Norwegian Cycling Federation, are covered through the Norwegian Cycling Federation's license insurance, as if they were members of the Norwegian National Insurance Scheme.

All treatment of injuries shall be carried out in Norway and must be initiated through "Skadetelefonen" to be covered by the insurance. Injuries that represent a serious threat to life or health must be directed directly to accident and emergency or a hospital.
